

Chamber News Update – Nov. 19

Just a quick update and some reminders today folks!

1. Downtown Business/Rail Jam Planning Meet – REMINDER today at 4pm in the Chamber Board Room we will be having a meeting of the Downtown Business Committee (formerly known as the Retail Committee). All are welcome to come, share ideas and help in the planning whether you're located downtown or not. Topics to be covered this afternoon include:
 - a. Moonlight Madness/Holiday Light Up
 - b. Revy Rail Jam
 - c. Olympic Torch Relay
 - d. Proposed List of Events for 2010

2. Snowflake Wine Festival – This Saturday from 7pm – 1am, the Revelstoke Ski Club and RMR are presenting the 1st Annual Snowflake Wine Festival. Admission is $35.00 per person and includes 2 tasting tickets. Additional tasting tickets are available for $1.00 a piece. The event will feature wineries from across BC, microbreweries and catering by The Modern Bakeshop & Café. Additionally there will be a silent auction, entertainment, tours of the lodge AND a designated driver program. The will all take place in the lobby of Nelson Lodge on November 21. You can get your tickets for the Event at Skookum, Castle Joe's Books and Selkirk Dental Clinic.

3. Board Elections – Yesterday you elected 4 new directors to take seats on the Board for 2010-2011. Those who were acclaimed to these seats include:
 - a. Brydon Roe, Revelstoke Alpine Properties
 - b. Meghann Hutton, Notary Public
 - c. Melodie Kindret, Revelstoke Credit Union Insurance Services
 - d. Emma Kirkland, The Powder Springs Hotel

We are still seeking nominations for 2 remaining seats on the Board. If you, or someone you know is interested, they should contact the Chamber of Commerce. In order to be eligible, the business must have been a member of the Chamber for a minimum of 6 months.

Special thanks to our outgoing Board members for their long and dedicated service to the Chamber of Commerce:

- ~ Norm Langlois, The Coast Hillcrest Resort Hotel
- ~ Eric Tompkins, Clearview Computers
- ~ Elmer Rorstad, Free Spirit Sports
